

We all need choices in the media rather than just plain vanilla media hype that we are now getting from our ONE newspaper, FOX news, and clear channel. International media tells the REAL story much of the time, and many Americans have their heads in the sand and believe the spoon fed stuff from the general media. Please do not allow this to happen!